November, 2022

President: Susan Allred

The end of the year is upon us; it's November! The Lilburn Woman's Club kicks into high gear at this time of year. Thank you to each of you for the ways you continue to serve.

We have several big events coming and of course all the planning and preparations that go into them. We will be hosting the Santa Claus float in the City of Lilburn parade on December 3rd. Get involved in planning and executing this fun, visible project. Of course, our annual Auction and Dinner is on December 8th. Come up with some items that can be auctioned "For the Children." Laurie Benken, our chair, has asked us to perhaps team up with each other to donate bigger items or create a themed basket or items that keep giving throughout the year (i.e., monthly baked items.) Get creative!

As we close out this year, we are also setting plans for 2023. Be ready and get involved. We need you and all your contributions to building and serving our community. Thank you!

1st Vice President: Kathy Shepherd

The new and prospective member orientation will be Sat. Nov 5th from 2PM to 4PM at Judy Nash's barn. This is a very informative introduction to the workings of the Lilburn Woman's Club. New members can present their questions and get to know club.

2nd Vice President: Kathy Mattox

LWC members put so much love, and hard work into our projects. This is our time to shine and realize just how much we do for our community. Don't forget to tally your hours and donations for CSP reports!

Corresponding Secretary: Pat

Don't forget to keep in touch with our members who are dealing with health issues. I know they like to hear from everyone!

I have sent out cards for birthdays, get-well, and sympathy to members.

Have you completed the Scavenger Hunt yet? Bet you learn things about the club that you did not know. We have so much to be proud of – we want to share our accomplishments with all of Lilburn.

The Hunt is very easy – download the Eventzee App on your phone (it's free)

Purchase access to the hunt (it is on the ticket, or you can purchase online and access will be emailed to you)
Play the game – get a friend to play too!
It's more fun with someone to go with you!

Check the leaderboard and see where you rank. (Presently Susan Allred is in the lead – can YOU take it away from her?)

Everyone that completes the hunt will be eligible for prizes that range from Annual memberships to YRWS and Atlanta Botanical Society, gift cards to Amazon, nail salons and local restaurants, luggage sets, massages, perfume – just to name a few.

The hunt is entirely completed in Lilburn – almost all of it in the downtown area near the park. It will only take a couple of hours to finish.

Tickets are still available. Make sure your friends and family have participated in this educational game that will help them learn about how the Lilburn Woman's Club impacts Lilburn.

Art and Culture: Gloria Sill & Susan Boudreaux

The Art Committee and other LWC members worked hard to create interesting items for our Lilburn Daze sellables booth. As a result, we almost doubled what we made last year. We don't even have enough left over to sell at the Holiday Farmers Market. Be thinking about what you might like to create for next year's Lilburn Daze.

We would like to help our local Parkview band with some of our Art money. Helping the local arts is what we're about.

Keep your eyes out for good holiday concerts and movies that we might like to share with each other. There are a number of concerts and festivals in the north Georgia mountains and in western Carolina. Check the newspapers for these fall and holiday celebrations.

There are also art immersion exhibits for Pablo Picasso's art as well as Claud Monet's art. These immersion exhibits are amazing if you have never gone to one before. Talk your friends and family into sharing these experiences together.

Art is also culinary arts, so share with us all the beautiful food experiences for have had or will had. By the way, have you checked out the new Los Hermanos restaurant? It looks amazing!

Have fun creating ideas for the holidays. We'd all like to hear about them.

Civic Engagement & Outreach: Adela Salame-Alfie & Ginnie Childers

We will be honoring female veterans at the November meeting.

Do not forget to vote! This is so important to our county, state, and country. We are blessed to live in a country where everyone has the right to vote. Vote before or on November 8th.

Education and Libraries: Judy Nash & Rodean Wilson

Back in 1977, the Lilburn Library was in a small house where Lilburn park is now. Lilburn Woman's Club members were the volunteer librarians, opening and keeping the library staffed. Most of the books in the shelves were member donated or purchased.

Working with the Gwinnett Library Board and the Lilburn City Council we were able to have the Gwinnett County Public library in Lilburn established. Mayor Jack Sawyer and LWC member Janet Sawyer (member of the Lilburn Board) were great supporters of establishing our library. Councilman Gartrell Nash was instrumental in our obtaining the little house for the library.

Over the years LWC has continued to support libraries and have donated time and funding to improve our library. The train mural was painted by our members and many books and other library materials have been donated.

Social: Laurie Benken

Social meeting at Laurie's home on Wed Nov. 2nd at 7pm to plan the December Christmas Auction

Will discuss the price amount for the meal cost which has gone up our Caterer (My Favorite things Catering out of Hartwell, GA) has been confirmed.

Some ideas to condense donations for Christmas Auction, to make donations bigger and worth more, ladies going into together on a item or a basket idea so we have less items but more pricey items so the evening does not go so long. Folks leaving during the half way point and ladies checking out with the finances well into the night.

A day trip to Dahlonega on Friday Nov 4th has sparked a lot of interest. We have about 12 signed up so far, we need drivers but I added some more spots on the sign up genius.

America Recycles Day, also known as National Recycling Day, is a national observance in the United States dedicated to promoting recycling across the nation. Observed on November 15 each year, the observance is the signature recycling program of Keep America Beautiful.

Oil and latex paint will be limited to 10 gallons total per vehicle.

Recycling electronics is free except for televisions, monitors, and printers. There is a $35 cash fee per projection or console TV, a $15 cash fee per flat screen TV or computer monitor, and a $5 cash fee per printer.

Winter Wonderlights is back for the 2nd year! This fun event is very reasonably priced at $15.00. On select nights from Nov. 23, 2022 through Jan. 8, 2023 the State Botanical Garden of Georgia at the University of Georgia in Athens is transformed at night into a wonderland of twinkling lights and dazzling displays.

The winter light show, presented by the UGA Office of the President, follows a half-mile fully accessible trail down Candy Cane Lane, past creatures stirring and shimmering snowflakes, through a tunnel of multicolored lights, through a cone tree forest and into a holiday market.

Fidget cuffs for dementia patients. We will finish those at the meeting. Samples and kits will be available at the November general meeting. Anyone interested in spending a few hours making them on your own, please pick up a kit at the meeting or contact Nadine to have some delivered.

Cherlye Haynes will organize the Pickle Ball Tournament again this year, but she is currently out of the country. She will return mid-November, and hopefully will be able to let us know what is needed when we meet. Proceeds from the tournament will go to The Exceptional Foundation of Atlanta, as it did last year. This organization supports those with special needs who have aged out of their school programs. The end of the year is busy for everyone, but please consider supporting this wonderful project.

Lilburn Daze: Nadine Bily

It is impossible to thank everyone who helped make Lilburn Daze a success. Of course, the beautiful weather was a major contributor, but without your hard work we could not have reaped the rewards of a profitable project.

I want to give a special thank you to all of those wonderful ladies who went the extra mile and took a leadership role by chairing one of the many Lilburn Daze subcommittees. As stated in our bylaws, each member is required to work a minimum of four hours at Lilburn Daze. These members (18 of you!) devoted MANY MORE than the required four hours. We will create a 2022 Lilburn Daze notebook, and as if I haven't asked enough of you, I would like each of you to submit a report of what you did to prepare your area for Lilburn Daze. Include what you did and approximately how many hours you spent, forms and letters created, contact names and numbers, how many weeks in advance of Lilburn Daze you performed your duties, and any suggestions you have for next year. Please submit your report to Nadine by November 9.
