Answer each of the following questions, briefly, but thoroughly, on a separate piece of paper.

1. List school activities (class officer, clubs, athletics, publications, music, etc.) for grades 9-12. Include the name or description of the activity, offices held, committee membership, project participation, etc. and the year or years you participated.
2. List community activities, (scouting, church, volunteer work, etc.) in which you have participated during high school years. Include name or description of the activity, offices held, committee membership, etc., and the year or years involved.
3. List any jobs you held during high school years, including summers (either for a family member or outside employer). Describe the work, approximate number of hours per week, and length of employment.
4. List any special awards or honors during your high school years that are not mentioned above.
5. Please write one or two paragraphs to explain how you plan to incorporate leadership and community involvement in your future plans.
6. Please write one or two paragraphs to explain how the GFWC Lilburn Woman's Club scholarship will benefit you personally.

Attach 2 letters of recommendation, one of which should be from a school counselor or teacher. Also, attach a current transcript of high school academic records, including SAT and/or ACT scores.
